significance of preserving one's own culture and values no matter how advanced we are and the need of 3D's- Discipline, Devotion and Diligence in everyone's life. The prolific author, journalist and social activist Mr. Siddhartha, founder Pipal Tree & Fireflies Intercultural Centre, Bangalore, delivered the keynote address with an enlightening story that helped the audience to contemplate on viewing things from deeper roots that will prove that everyone has common grounds no matter how different it looks from shallow heights. Dr. Victor Paul, Professor and Head, Department of Social Work and Sociology, in his felicitation address, connected the theme on positive actions of social work education and environment – the eco social work and green social work, demonstrated sustainable community development models in the projects of Centre for Social Action and encouraged students on their role as change agents to act upon UN Sustainable Development Goals 7, 8,9,11&13 focusing community and sustainable environment. Rahul Raghav, FSL team member jerked the audience with power packed group bonding activities that left the audience merry and wanting for more of it.

Technical session started with a Panel discussion on the theme "Promoting Community and Environmental Sustainability". Panellists were Mr. Nirban Ganguly and Ms. Mithali from Centre for Social Action, Christ University, Ms. Priyanka Das from Green Army, Christ University, Ms. Matha Margret from FSL, India and M. Karthik from Srishti Foundation. They came along and shared their innovative ideas on sustaining the environment for promoting community. The initiatives put forward by the panellists have proved very effective on water harvesting, cultivation, grey water usage, compost solutions and waste management. Panel discussion concluded with various initiatives that have been implemented and that could be further put forward in action. Dr. Mary Tariang, Assistant professor, Department of Social Work, Christ University was the moderator.

The panel discussion was followed by group discussions on Promoting community and Environmental Sustainability Clubs in participant social work colleges were brainstormed and each groups came up with interesting ideas which can be implemented across smaller localities to make a change. Interesting action plans included Nidhi – Garbage Treatment, Project Disha which were impressed by all participants. Such initiatives that connect sustaining the environment and promoting community can be spread to other rural places where people await solutions.

Mr. D. Ragland, Deputy Director, FSL India delivered the Vote of Thanks with which the program came to an end with an indenture of creating a core committee representing participant

WORLD MUSIC DAY 2016

DEPARTMENT OF PERFORMING ARTS

Music enhances the state of well being, and leads to a blissful state. Christ University celebrated World Music Day on June 21st, 2016 at the Main Auditorium. The versatility of music was witnessed by showcasing performances in both the Eastern and the Western forms. World Music Day took off with the performance by the Department of Music followed by the Department of Performing Arts. It was spearheaded by Ms Bo Ra Lee, Ms Liudmila Alizarchyk and Ms Natallia Kapylova playing exquisite lessons in piano. Mr Aleg Alizarchyk, the Faculty accompanied our esteemed guest performer Ms Natallia Kapylova. Christ audience were awe struck by this event, as it has been the first time predominantly the student gathering were introduced to this quality of Western music.

The programme then steered closer to our hearts and our home, with a showcase of Indian Classical music. The Faculty of the Department of Performing Arts, Dr Muthulakshmi G, Dr Kamala Kumar and Prof. Sunil Kumar rendered brilliant Carnatic compositions. They were accompanied by Sri Venugopal on Mridangam, Sri Madhusudhan on the Violin, and Sri Subramanya Mohithe on the Kanjira. Sri Vijay Madhavan did nattuvangam for the dance presentation that followed.

The Dean of Humanities and Social Sciences, Professor John Joseph Kennedy expressed his wonder and appreciation for the finesse of the artists and spoke about his deep connection with music. He encouraged the students to indulge in the ample opportunities provided by the University. Vice Chancellor, Colonel Reverend Doctor Father Thomas C Mathew addressed the gathering and felicitated the performers. Indian Classical music has three main components, that being the vocal, the instrumental and the dance. To showcase this third element, the Department of Performing Arts performed a Thillana in Ragam Desh and Talam Adi, Choreographed by Sri Vijay Madhavan. The performers were Mr Prabin Villareesh, Head of the Department, Ms Sandhya K S, Faculty and the students from both the Department and other Department. The end of World Music Day celebration was energetic and indeed a visual treat.
