

“A Study on effectiveness of the "Ujjawala Scheme" for the Prevention of Trafficking, Rescue, Rehabilitation and Re-integration of Victims of Trafficking in Karnataka State”. This is major research project funded by Christ University. This study is evaluating the effectiveness of Ujjawala scheme of Govt. of India, implemented in all districts of Karnataka. “Ujjawala” is the unique program of the women and child development department of State Government for the prevention of trafficking in the State. This evaluation research will provide in-depth information for improvement needed for the scheme and its beneficiaries, the data on the problems faced by the victims of the trafficking, causes and types of trafficking, their wants, post trafficking life will facilitate the professional social workers to develop appropriate intervention programs for the victims of the trafficking. Dr. Sheeja Remani B Karalam is the Principal Investigator and Ms. Bharathi is the Co investigator. The project duration is 3 years from 2012-2014.