National Assessment and Accreditation Council (NAAC)

The National Assessment and Accreditation Council (NAAC) is an organisation that assesses and accredits higher education Institutions (HEIs) in India. It is an autonomous body funded by University Grants Commission of Government of India headquartered in Bengaluru. NAAC was established in 1994 as per the recommendations of National Policy in Education (1986). This policy was to "Address the issues of deterioration in quality of education", and the Programme of Action (POA-1992) laid out strategic plans for the policies including the establishment of an independent national accreditation body. Consequently, the NAAC was established in 1994 with its headquarters at Bengaluru.

Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC)

The Internal Quality Assurance Cell in CHRIST (Deemed to be University) was established on 03 November 2003. The prime task of the IQAC is to develop a system for conscious, consistent and catalytic improvement in the overall performance of CHRIST. For this, during the post-accreditation period, it channelizes all efforts and measures of the Institution towards promoting its holistic academic excellence.

Centre for Education Beyond Curriculum (CEDBEC)

The Centre was established in 1998 to stimulate and rediscover through experience, the perspectives in education so that individuals and institutions reflect and rediscover themselves and move towards sustainable progress in the educational arena.

Objectives

In the move towards enhancing quality in higher education in general and universities in specific, the National Assessment and Accreditation Council (NAAC) has introduced a new process of assessment and accreditation since July 2017. Considering the character of its process that encompasses both qualitative and quantitative dimensions and representing an explicit Paradigm Shift making it ICT enabled, objective, transparent, scalable and robust. There is an urgent need to build competencies of IQAC members at the institutional level and to develop an understanding of the nuances involved in the current process of assessment and accreditation. It is essential to create a deeper understanding of quality related to data mining, data capturing across the NAAC framework and its specific criteria so that the institutions develop new benchmarks and best practices. The capacities of key personnel driving quality initiatives in their respective institutions are to be developed and nurtured. Hence the seminar on NAAC Assessment and Accreditation - Building Institutional Competencies, will focus on issues related to how institutions can develop their self-improvement initiatives to promote innovation and strengthen quality in their respective institutions.

Outcome

Through the seminar, the competencies of participating key personnel from universities with regard to quality awareness will be identified and efforts will be made to disseminate and transfer quality ideas to all concerned in their respective institutions. As a key outcome institutions will gain increased awareness on the overall approach to the new NAAC quality Framework.

Further, IQAC faculty members and administrators in their respective institutions will acquire capabilities and conceptual clarity of the revised NAAC Assessment and Accreditation (A&A) Framework.

The key university personnel develop institutional capacity building in understanding Quality Indicator Framework (QIF). Institutional personnel will develop a deeper understanding of the process of developing their capacity and competencies for preparation of SSR, data mining and articulating as per NAAC Framework.

Institutions will develop the efficiency and developmental procedures in the effective management of IQAC in their institutions.

Institutions develop several support systems and mentoring departments in the quality assurance process. Enable participating institutions to evolve best practices on their own and for enhancing changes of their Institutions and quality in higher education in general.
